

Anna Michailidi

Dietitian – Nutritionist BSc.
Office & Administrative Coordinator

Anna Michailidi is a Dietitian – Nutritionist and a graduate of the Department of Nutrition and Dietetics at the Hellenic Mediterranean University. In 2021, she completed her internship at the Nutrify office, where she gained valuable experience with a variety of cases, and upon its completion, she began working as an associate of Mr. Athanasiadis at the office.

At the same time, she has taken over the management of Nutrify's social media, creating all the content, both in terms of text (informative articles, captions, scientifically documented material) and visuals (design and presentation of visual content). She also holds the position of Office Manager and Administrative Support at Nutrify.

She is certified in anthropometric measurements (ISAK Level 1), which strengthens her scientific expertise and accuracy in client assessment. In addition, she has attended educational programs and seminars related to nutrition and lifestyle, enabling her to always provide scientifically sound and practical solutions tailored to each individual's needs.
